ABOUT US

With assets totalling $168 million, the Bank continues to maintain its position as a highly capitalized, independently owned and operated bank. Each location is conveniently placed throughout the communities they serve, and the banking centers proudly offer personalized, quality service to their customers, with local staff and decision-making. The Bank is part of the Sturm Financial Group of community banks and is proud that with its friendly, talented staff empowered to serve customers at each of their four banking locations, and membership in the most predominant local and national ATM networks, business and personal banking has never been as pleasant or convenient as it is today.
