PREMIER BANK HOSTS FUND RAISING EVENT

LENEXA, KS – Premier Bank today announced they will be sponsoring "Cookout for a Cause" which will benefit the American Stroke Foundation. The event will be held on site at Premier Bank's Fairway branch located at 2701 Shawnee Mission Parkway (Belinder and Shawnee Mission Parkway) on Friday, May 28, 2010, from 11am to 2pm.

The mission of the American Stroke Foundation is to empower stroke survivors and their families to overcome ongoing challenges of life after stroke and rejuvenate their lives.

They are the only non-profit organization providing post-rehabilitative services to stroke survivors. Activities include speech, occupational activities of daily living classes, reading, writing, support groups and caregiver services. Patrick Ayers, President and CEO of the American Stroke Foundation says "Premier Bank is truly a community bank and we are very happy that they have created this event to benefit the American Stroke Foundation."

"May is Stroke Awareness Month and we greatly appreciate the opportunity to support the American Stroke Foundation by hosting this community event. During the summer our plan is to hold a monthly cookout event to help support various community organization. We will serve hot dogs, hamburgers, chips, a drink and cookies to everyone who makes a donation. All proceeds will then be donated to our charitable organization of the month” states Jeff Boomgarden, Branch Manager.
